Important Proceedings in the Spanish Cortes.

The Question of Abolishing Slavery in the Provinces Considered.

Manifesto of the Opposition Members of the French Legislature.

A List of Reforms to be Insisted Upon.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LONDON, Nov. 15.

The proceedings in the Constituent Cortes, on the 9th, were interesting and important. Upon the question of the Provinces of Cuba and Porto Rico, Minister of the Colonies, when the question was under discussion, stated that the decision of the Government would be in favor of the abolition of slavery in Porto Rico, and that the Government would propose the same measure for Cuba. Upon this declaration the Minister was interrupted by cries of "Long live Porto Rico free!" "Long live Cuba free!" "Down with slavery!" The Minister, however, protested that the cries were premature, and that the Government would not be responsible for the consequences of the measure. He did not intend to offer compensation to slaveholders, but would propose the immediate emancipation of slaves in Porto Rico, and would be in favor of the same measure for Cuba. The Minister of Finance, Figuerola, declared that the cries of "Long live Porto Rico free!" "Long live Cuba free!" "Down with slavery!" were premature, and that the Government would not be responsible for the consequences of the measure. He did not intend to offer compensation to slaveholders, but would propose the immediate emancipation of slaves in Porto Rico, and would be in favor of the same measure for Cuba.

MILITARY REVIEW AT COMPIEGNE.

PARIS, Nov. 15.

The Emperor was with Generals of the Paladin at Compiegne, reviewed the troops assembled there, during the day. He was greeted with cheers.

The manifesto of the Opposition members of the Corps Legislatif is published, and is signed by twenty-four deputies. They say the decision of the people of the land to govern themselves is an irrevocable transformation, the necessity of which is such that all sorts of views and party interests must yield to it. The Opposition do not intend to make any factious opposition to the Government, but will support it in all measures which are in accordance with the principles of liberty.

PARIS, Nov. 15.

The Opposition deputies have published a manifesto, in which they declare that the people have decided to govern themselves, and that the Government must yield to the will of the people. They say that they will support the Government in all measures which are in accordance with the principles of liberty.

A Five Thousand Dollar Breach of Promise Suit.

Miss Mary Judah, by her father, Mr. Samuel Judah, has brought suit against Mr. Jacob Rehm for the sum of $5,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. The declaration sets forth that the plaintiff is a minor, and that the defendant, on the 1st day of January, 1867, at Chicago, in consideration that the plaintiff would marry him, promised to marry her within a reasonable time thereafter, and that the plaintiff, relying upon said promise, was ready and willing to marry the defendant, but that he refused to marry her, and has broken his said promise, to her damage, &c. The plaintiff's attorneys are Messrs. Hoyne & Miller.

Singular Partnership Difficulty—Quashing Charges.

Mr. Thomas Gerrish, of Gerrish, Hunt & Co., was arrested on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by Mr. Charles Hunt, his partner. The complaint set forth that Mr. Gerrish had received $1,000 belonging to the firm, and had appropriated the same to his own use. Mr. Gerrish was arrested, and gave bail in the sum of $2,000 to appear before the Criminal Court. Mr. Gerrish's counsel moved to quash the charges, on the ground that the partnership was dissolved, and that Mr. Gerrish had a right to collect the debts due the firm. Judge Wilson overruled the motion, and the case will be tried in the Criminal Court.

Real Estate Sales—Judgment—Divorce Applied For.

Sheriff Matson has sold the following real estate, which was levied upon as the property of Mrs. Mary Ann Kinsley, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Mr. Thomas Kinsley: Lot 1 in Block 1 in Kinsley's Addition to Chicago, and lot 1 in Block 1 in Kinsley's Addition to Lake View, to Mr. Thomas Kinsley, for $1,000.

Mr. Thomas Kinsley has also obtained a judgment for $1,000 against Mrs. Mary Ann Kinsley, and has had the property levied upon and sold to satisfy the same. Mr. Kinsley has also filed a bill for divorce, on the ground of desertion.
